Browse news articles about J-PAL and our affiliated professors, and read our press releases and monthly global and research newsletters. For media inquiries, please email us.

How an Indianapolis-area church erased $2 million in medical debt for Hoosier families

Monday, June 17, 2019 - IndyStar

Article discusses the context around J-PAL NA's funded project, which measures the impact of medical debt forgiveness on financial outcomes in the United States.

Can 'Nudge' Letters Cut Overprescribing of Psych
Meds?
Wednesday, June 5, 2019 - MedPage Today

Article features research by J-PAL affiliate Adam Sacarny, which evaluated the impact of strongly-worded peer comparison review letters sent to high prescribers of quetiapine on prescribing behavior...

---

Applying lessons from war-torn Africa to Chicago
Saturday, May 4, 2019 - The Economist

J-PAL affiliate Chris Blattman is rigorously evaluating a program in Chicago aimed at reducing violent crime through an intervention that combines job training with months of intense efforts to teach...

---

J-PAL North America’s newest initiative explores the work of the future
Friday, April 19, 2019 - MIT News

Nonprofit and industry leaders, researchers, and policymakers gather for a kick-off conference to discuss how to make work more equitable, efficient, and just.
A wellness program at work may make you feel good, but it won't improve your health

Friday, April 19, 2019 - Los Angeles Times

Study by J-PAL affiliate Katherine Baicker shows little benefit from employee wellness programs.

How Well Do Workplace Wellness Programs Work?

Tuesday, April 16, 2019 - NPR

Employee Wellness Programs Yield Little Benefit, Study Shows

Tuesday, April 16, 2019 - The New York Times

Workplace Wellness Programs Barely Move The Needle, Study Finds

Tuesday, April 16, 2019 - Kaiser Health News
https://www.povertyactionlab.org/news?field_newsletter_type_value=All&field_office_nid=8417