☐ Since J-PAL is part of MIT, everyone who is associated with J-PAL, including researchers worldwide receiving grants from J-PAL initiatives, are considered part of the broader MIT community. By checking this box, researchers certify that they have read and agree to adhere to MIT's community wide policies.

☐ By checking this box, all J-PAL affiliates and initiative invited researchers who are co-PIs on this project certify that they will be active, engaged and responsive PIs on this project dedicated to guaranteeing the quality control on all aspects of this research; and that their participation in this project is not merely to provide access to J-PAL resources and funding to anyone else working on this project who is neither a J-PAL affiliate, nor an initiative special invitee.

* The institute to receive the award is the entity that will receive funds from J-PAL/MIT. Eligible institutes must: 1) be located in the United States or Canada; 2) have a formal affiliation with a project PI (e.g. employment, PI status, etc); 3) have their own IRB with IORG status or be willing to engage a private/commercial IRB.
