Jobs and Opportunity Initiative (JOI) Full Research Proposal Application

Full Research awards are open for proposal submission from research projects at a mature level of development. Not only should the research question be clear, but applicants must also demonstrate a commitment from implementing partners, a method of randomization, well-defined instruments, and sample size estimates. Applicants may also request funding to continue research projects that have already started without JOI funding (including those for which field data collection is complete). The expectation is that these projects will result in a paper publishable in a top economics journal.

JOI Spring 2022 RFP Overview

J-PAL's Jobs and Opportunity Initiative (JOI) funds randomized evaluations that address pressing labor market challenges related to supply and matching, job creation, and the future of jobs. JOI is now calling for proposals from J-PAL affiliates, J-PAL postdocs, and JOI invited researchers for full research projects, pilot studies, travel/proposal development grants, and policy outreach support grants. PhD students, with support from an advisor who is a J-PAL affiliate or JOI invited researcher, are also eligible to apply. African scholars are also eligible to apply for pilot studies and travel/proposal development grants. Proposals are due by Tuesday, April 26, 2022 at 1:00 PM US ET.

Policy Motivation *

Please provide a summary of the policy problem that motivates this research and describe how it fits with the research priorities identified in the RFP Overview.

Policy Relevance *

Does the study address questions crucial to understanding pressing issues on labor market policies in low- and middle-income countries? Does it address the priority questions outlined in the RFP overview? Will results from the intervention have broader implications? How, if at all, will the "lessons learned" have relevance beyond this test case? Is there demand from policy makers for more/better information to influence their decisions in this area? Is there potential for the implementing partner to scale up this intervention?

Potential to Inform Policy Decisions *

A comment on whether the project has the potential to inform policy or program design.

Intervention Details

A brief description of the intervention or treatment to be evaluated.

Power Calculations

Please describe your power calculations (effect size, take up/compliance, variance, clusters, observations per cluster, rho). We strongly encourage applicants to be very detailed in the presentation of power calculations.

- What is the minimum detectable effect size? Why do you believe this is an appropriate size?
- Clearly state what data and assumptions you use for these estimates. Always discuss take-up, and do not assume take-up will be 100% for the purposes of power calculations. This should be based on some form of past fieldwork (whether admin data of ongoing operations, a previous pilot, etc.)

- Are there any risks of unintended negative consequences for program participants and/or staff and if so, what are they? Has the team taken proactive measures to assess, monitor, and mitigate/prevent any such potential risks?

JOI Full and Pilot Proposal Budget Instructions

Instructions: Please submit a detailed project budget using the Excel template available below. To reduce the processing time, please keep the following in mind when developing your budget:

1. If there is co-funding for the project, you must complete both the "Total Project Budget" and the "JOI Budget" sheets in the budget template.
2. Awards are normally paid on a cost-reimbursable basis.
3. Applications must include budget notes in the column provided in the budget template, detailing the major costs within the budget. For example, "Travel Costs" should include a breakdown of how many trips are planned, the estimated cost per trip, etc. "Field Costs" should include a breakdown of the number of respondents, cost per respondent, etc.
4. Universities in high-income countries, generally defined as OECD member countries, can charge up to 10% in indirect costs, applied to total direct costs. Independent non-profits from any location and universities from mid- or low-income countries may charge up to 15% in indirect costs, applied to total direct costs.
5. We understand that the cap on overhead or indirect costs under JOI is low and that grantees may have reasonable project support costs included in budgets as direct costs. Such costs should be reasonable and explained in the budget notes.
6. Any computer/equipment purchases should include a breakdown of what is being purchased, (e.g. how many laptops), as well as the project staff that will be assigned to the equipment.
7. Unallowable costs include those labeled as "incidental," "miscellaneous," or "contingency." Any costs for rent should be explained in the budget notes.
8. JOI research funds are unable to fund any program implementation costs.
9. Please note that JOI does not cover salaries of PIs based in high income countries. For PIs based in low- and middle-income countries, the following applies:
 - Full RCTs: Up to $20,000 per year for LMIC researcher PI/co-PI time, with a limit of $8,000 per PI per year. However, in exceptional cases one can motivate a deviation from this threshold.
 - Pilots: Up to $8,000 per LMIC researcher PI/co-PI, but the total budgeted amount for LMIC researcher PI time should not exceed 25% of the total budget. However, in exceptional cases, such as where there is no primary data collection, one can motivate a deviation from these thresholds.
 - Proposal development grants: No PI time in budget.
10. It is your responsibility that your budget follows your host institution's policies for costs. As part of your proposal, you must submit a letter from the institution to receive the award that states that they have reviewed your proposal and accept your budget. If the organization allows you to submit your proposal without such a letter (due to time constraints or some other reason), please note this on the Proposal Cover Sheet (under the "Institution to receive grant funds" field). Please note that this applies to all projects, including those going through J-PAL and IPA offices. You should contact J-PAL and IPA offices in advance to make sure you are aware of their policies for proposal review.
